

Con Pack List

	Clothes
<input type="checkbox"/>	Comfy shoes. You'll be walking A LOT!
<input type="checkbox"/>	Insoles for shoes. I bring a couple of pair and switch them everyday
<input type="checkbox"/>	Backpack or messenger bag. Something with padded straps
<input type="checkbox"/>	Comfy leggings or jeans
<input type="checkbox"/>	T-shirts. Get on sorting through which ones are going with you. You need to suit up properly
<input type="checkbox"/>	Something a little dressier for any parties you are attending
	Cosplay
<input type="checkbox"/>	Make a copy of all the Team Build Checklists for the cosplays you are taking, so nothing gets left at home
<input type="checkbox"/>	Props
<input type="checkbox"/>	Jewelry
<input type="checkbox"/>	Boots and shoes that go with your cosplays
<input type="checkbox"/>	Wigs, if required
<input type="checkbox"/>	A hotel quick fix kit
	Logistics
<input type="checkbox"/>	Your badge or badge barcode!
<input type="checkbox"/>	Hotel Reservation
<input type="checkbox"/>	Plane tickets, if applicable
<input type="checkbox"/>	Pre-pay for airport parking and have a shuttle to get you to your hotel all set up. Or, make sure your ride share apps are up-to-date
<input type="checkbox"/>	If driving yourself, map out your driving route and alternate route
<input type="checkbox"/>	If you are driving, get your car serviced

Electronics

- Pack all your devices and their chargers
- Extra phone batteries, service at cons is terrible. You'll need an extra battery
- Ear buds
- Download the Con app. It's usually free!

For the Hotel

- Snacks and drinks
- A cooler if your hotel doesn't have a fridge
- Any muscle rollers to roll it out after a long day of walking and standing
- Heat and/or cold packs for sore muscles
- Over the counter pain relief
- Your prescription medications
- Sunscreen (just in case you get stuck outside waiting to get in somewhere, it happens)